The pseudonym Janus Bagge consists of Bjerregaard's father's two first names.

The pseudonym Louis Friis is constructed from his mother's first name, Louise, and the family name of his father's mother, Friis.

P.R.O.F. is inspired by Bjerregaard's self-claimed professor title.

The signature J.P., which appears frequently in Concise Dictionary of Religious Knowledge and Gazetteer, was used by Bjerregaard, but it is not clear whether all articles under this pseudonym can be attributed to him.

Most of the articles can be found at www.hathitrust.org or www.forgottenbooks.com.

Bjerregaard has also written a number of unidentified contributions to The International Encyclopedia, Encyclopedia Americana, Werner's Magazine, Azoth, Illustreret Ugeblad, Nordlyset, and Illustreret Tidende.
